

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXVI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1908.

NO. 45.

THE LATE EDITOR F. J. CAMPBELL.

Who was brave, fearless and always the champion of the right against the wrong; an uncompromising democrat; publisher of truth, yet thoughtful of the unfortunate; lover of home and State. A good man gone. Peace to his ashes!

Sizes Him Up Right.

The editor of the Switzerland, Ind., Democrat has Powers and his aides and abettors down fine as this article shows:

The Democrat desires to compliment the Madison Chautauqua management on its good sense and sound judgment in cancelling the engagement of Caleb Powers for Aug. 8. The people of Indiana do not want a Guiteau or a Czolgosz masquerading her platforms in the guise of a martyr, pouring out his tale of woe.

Chautauqua platforms are designed for such entertainments as look to the betterment of mankind in general, where ideals of a higher life are depicted. Then why should a man, charged with one of the foulest and bloodiest murders ever committed, be given such an opportunity to rehearse his story to an outraged public, after being saved from the gallows and State prison by the intervention of a political friend with an official pardon?

It should not be forgotten that Caleb Powers was twice convicted by a jury of his peers and by a unanimous ballot, too, and the fourth trial resulted in a hung jury.

It should not be forgotten too, that the three reversals of this case by the court of appeals—and Howard's too, were simply on technicalities, and in no instance on the merits of their cases, and these too, strictly along political lines.

Caleb Powers owes his liberty to this influence of his political friends and not to any sense of justice. He was convicted upon his own evidence and that of his friends and associates, who were mixed up in this affair with him at the time.

Where is his brother, John Powers? Where has he been since the firing of the assassin's bullet? Why has he not been faithful and loyal to his brother in this hour of trouble? Why did he leave him to his fate, when the "State Government" abdicated their official places and positions, after Gov. Goebel had been shot down by the assassin? Why not present during his long and tedious trials, confinement in the several prisons where he was kept for over seven long years?

No, he too, is a fugitive from justice. He was indicted for complicity in this crime by a Franklin county, Ky., grand jury.

He was in the Secretary of State's office as chief clerk of his brother when the trouble occurred.

Why did not Wm. S. Taylor, "Gov." Taylor, appear to testify for Caleb Powers?

He was present in his office next to that of the Secretary of State, when the assassin found his way into Powers' office and fired the fatal shot.

Gov. Beckham, Judge Stout and State's Attorney Franklin promised Taylor absolute protection, and even went so far as to offer the services of a company of regular soldiers to meet him at the Ohio river, escort him to Georgetown and back to Indiana and guard and protect him while testifying and attending the trial. All of this Taylor declined—and now that Kentucky has a republican governor, Taylor does not return to his home in his native State.

The people of Indiana, too, would be glad to be relieved of the cloud hanging over them as a "law abiding" State, by reason of the continued presence of Taylor and Finley here. Let Gov. Willson make good his campaign promise by issuing a requisition for the return of these men to their native State and let them prove their innocence of the charges against them, before they assume to permanent citizenship here.

Caleb Powers was adjudged guilty chiefly upon his own evidence and has no cause of complaint at the hands of the court.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Mrs. Roy Garner sold a cow to Robt. Thompson for $50.

Our farmers are taking advantage of the dry weather and are baling their hay.

Dr. John Cooper is with C. A. Redd, Morris Harris, of Louisville, is at the bedside of his mother, who is critically ill. Bailor Holtzclaw has a new boy at his home. Mrs. John Stevens and daughter, Mrs. Eubanks, are visiting friends here.

OTTENHEIM.

The recent rains have revived hope in our farmers very considerably.

Wheat has turned out reasonably well around here and South of this place it is very good.

This seems to be a good rattie snake year, as there have been a half dozen or more killed in this section.

Deputy Sheriff Gooch was in this section trying to catch a law breaker, but at last accounts had not succeeded.

Mr. Peter Carter will address the people at Pine Grove church on the second Sunday in August. Subject: "The Lord's Supper." Everybody is invited.

T. N. Butt has moved his saw mill on G. M. Adams' place, where he and Russell Dillion have bought a large tract of timber. They are now ready for business.

Mrs. S. M. Chandler is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charley Kerr, at Kirksville. Wm. Landgraf was elected school trustee for this district, to the satisfaction of all the patrons.

NEWS NOTES.

Preston T. Potter, one of Warren county's oldest and best-known citizens, is dead.

Three men were killed in an explosion at the Knickerbocker colliery near Shenandoah, Pa.

Bronson Howard, the dramatic, died at Avon-by-the-sea, N. J., of heart failure. He had been ill for several weeks.

Winfield Scott Smyth, known to educators throughout the country as a publisher of school text books, died at South Haven, Mich.

The Throckmorton Hotel, at Maysville, was burned. The proprietress of the hotel had $4,000 concealed under a carpet in one of the rooms which was destroyed.

Gov. Willson has offered a reward of $500 "for the apprehension and conviction of the leader and chief officer and the officers next in authority to him, of the night riders in the Hopkinsville raid, the Princeton raid and the Russellville raid."

James Kelley, of Paducah, shot and killed Link James and probably fatally wounded Miss Eva Sleeter, meeting them on the road near Metropolis, Ill., when they were out buggy riding. Kelley killed himself after shooting his rival and the girl.

J. B. Brasher, editor of the Madisonville Journal, and Jack Shanks, a non-union contractor, engaged in a fight which resulted in Shanks' receiving a number of ugly gashes about the face. Shanks, it is said, attacked Brasher, striking him in the face and knocking him back several feet.

George Pettibone, for years prominent in the councils of the Western Federation of Miners and charged with President Moyer and former Secretary Haygood of complicity in the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at Denver from the effects of an operation for cancer.

Rufus Browder, the Negro slayer of James Cunningham, was indicted on the charge of willful murder. His attorneys entered a motion for a change of venue, at Russellville, and testimony in support of the motion will be heard next Monday. The trial will not be called before August 12, and Browder will remain in jail at Louisville until then. In all probability Gov. Willson will send a guard of militia with the Negro when he is returned for trial.

The State of Texas has established a rigid yellow fever quarantine against Mexico.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocer's everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc. have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute," too. No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. Penny's Drug Store.

The colored teachers' institute met Monday at 10 A. M. in the First Baptist church with Supt. G. Singleton presiding. After giving an interesting talk he presented the efficient conductor, Mrs. L. B. Sneed, of Louisville, who delivered an excellent address, in which she outlined the work for the week and gave splendid suggestions as to how this work should be prepared. Miss Elizabeth Broadus was elected secretary. The roll was called and the following teachers responded. Profs. J. F. Owens, R. C. Durham and F. L. Stepp. Drs. Charles Sneed and W. D. Tardif, Misses Estella Jarman, Clara Lackey, Rosa Ross, J. A. Reid, Rebecca Logan, Georgia Cowen and L. V. Hudson. Mesdames A. V. Haynes, Mary Owens, A. H. Tardif, T. E. Sneed and Mrs. Haynes; Reading—Mrs. Stepp; Language Composition—Mrs. Tardif; History—Miss Clara Lackey; Geography—Prof. Stepp; Primary Arithmetic—Miss J. A. Reid; How Can a Teacher Secure Interest—Miss M. E. Jarman; Power and Imagination—Miss Elizabeth Broadus.

HUBBLE.

Most all the wheat here has been threshed but the yield is not so good as in previous years.

Mrs. J. W. Anderson wishes us to thank the people here for their kindness during her recent bereavement.

There is much sickness in this community and our hustling physician, Dr. Hickle, is kept busy day and night.

On account of repairs there were no services at the Christian church last Sunday. The ladies are having the interior of the church beautified with a new coat of paper and expect to have everything in readiness for the protracted meeting, which is set for Sept. 6th.

After an illness of about two months, Mr. J. W. Anderson, our clever, blacksmith, was called to his reward Friday morning. He had been in declining health for a year, but did not realize until recently that the end was near. He was buried at the Fork church. He was a member of the Christian church and was a good, kind-hearted man. Our sympathy goes out to the broken home circle, where his loss is felt so deeply.

J. T. Weaver is up from Wayne county looking for a farm. Mr. Fount Stigall, of Somerset, is with his daughter, Mrs. Sloan. Robert Hutchison, who has resided here for some time, has moved his family to Lexington. Mr. Hutchison made many friends while in this community and we regret to give these good people up. Haven McBeath and wife have returned from a visit to Somerset. Miss Grace Deering, of Lexington, is the guest of Miss Flonnie Hammond. Mrs. James McKechnie is on the sick list. Mr. Luther Givens and wife, of Harrodsburg, spent several days with Mr. B. W. Givens and family. Miss Cora Goode, of Hustonville, is with Misses Effie and Hettie Miller.

BRODHEAD.

A fine rain fell Tuesday night and the threatened drouth is broken.

Dave Hurt, the section foreman, was taken very sick Wednesday and had to be brought in on his hand car.

The election for school trustee here was a hot one, creating more excitement than a county race. Granville Owens defeated John Robins 28 votes.

A little child of Mr. Renner died Sunday and was buried Monday. Dave Bilcher continues to improve. Mrs. Stevens, of the Sayers neighborhood, is better.

In a recent issue of the I. J. mention was made of some beans that measured 42 inches. Now, Mr. Editor, be honest, just how many of those beans did it take to measure 42 inches? Could it not be possible that they were the old-fashioned "yard peas"? We have been wanting to tell about a snake being killed near here, but were afraid.

The fair is all the talk now and the way things look it will be the best ever held here. The free attractions are larger and better than ever before; a balloon ascension each day at 1 o'clock, the merry-go-round, which always gives enjoyment, and other attractions not seen before will be on hand. The Red Men's band of Barbourville will furnish the music.

Weak women should read my "Book No. 4 for Women." It tells of Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. Tells how these soothing healing, antiseptic suppositories, bring quick and certain help. The Book is free. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Penny's Drug Store.

Former Senator William Lindsay, of Kentucky, delivered the principal address of the Virginia Bar Association at Hot Springs.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 25c.

A $300,000 fire swept Midway. Six ware-houses and 47,000 barrels of whisky were consumed.

August time, tells on the nerves. But that spirit less, no ambition feeling can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Within 48 hours after beginning to use the Restorative, improvement will be noticed. Of course, full health will not immediately return. The gain however, will surely follow. And best of all, you will realize and feel your strength and ambition as it is returning. Outside influences depress first the "inside nerves" then the stomach, Heart, and Kidneys will usually fail. Strengthen these failing nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly health will be yours again. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Taking A Week Off.

The editor of this paper is enjoying life just now. He and his family are spending a week at the hospitable home of Mr. Samuel Damron, near Mt. Salem, and are drinking Sims' Olympian Springs water. He took a similar outing last year and enjoyed it so much that he has since looked forward to another week of free and easy life among the good people of this part of Lincoln county. Mr. Damron, at whose home we are domiciled, moved to this county from Casey three years ago, but he originally lived in Adair. His family consists of his good wife and five children, four of whom are at home. It is an exceedingly happy, loving family and it makes one feel good to be in their home. They live on the old Major Jones farm and the head of the house is just as good at tilling the soil as he is in making those who come within his gates feel at home. His wife is a gentle, kind woman, a magnificent housekeeper, and a helpmeet in all the word means. Three fine young men are the sons of the good pair. They are sober, industrious, manly fellows and their parents say they have never given them a moment's trouble. Then there is a pretty daughter just budding into beautiful womanhood. She is very popular and the writer can't say just how long she will be a member of the household. However, when she does leave it she will be missed, but somebody else's home will be beautifully kept. She knows how and she has the energy to keep things straight from parlor to kitchen.

If Sims' Olympian Springs' water were an intoxicant there would be lots of drunkenness in and around the Springs now. Everybody drinks it and everybody seems benefited. A good crowd is at the Springs and has been since the latter part of May. This will certainly be Proprietor Sims' banner year. The baths he gives are very helpful and many take advantage of them. He is much better fixed to give baths than he was last year and the consequence is he is doing more business in that line. There is considerable talk of Mr. Sims selling out, but when a man turns down offers of $10,000 or more it looks like he doesn't care much about disposing of his holdings.

Crops in this section are looking fairly well. Corn has not suffered for rain as it has around Stanford. In fact the prospects for an average crop are fair. Wheat yielded pretty well and the hay crop was good. Old corn can be bought at $4 per barrel, which is cheaper than it is selling in other parts of the county.

Timber is being hauled from Casey and Russell to McKinney for shipment. An average of 75 or 100 wagons, heavily loaded with staves, ties, spokes or single trees, pass Mr. Damron's daily and more than half the teamsters stop and water themselves and their teams at his big spring. They do it on Mr. Damron's invitation, for he says he had rather furnish the water than have the stock go thirsty.

The people in this section are not at all pleased about the postoffice at Mt. Salem being discontinued. They petitioned the postoffice department to let it remain an office as it had for 35 years but it was all in vain. They know where to place the blame and a reopening of the postoffice question will be made soon. It looks hardly just to turn a deaf ear to 207 of the patrons of a country postoffice. They like the rural route pretty well but can't get use to it making their mail nearly a day late.

Mr. Mac Wheat, of Valley View, Tex., is visiting his friends and relatives at Middleburg. He was at Olympian Springs Sunday and so much resembled Senator Joe Bailey, of Texas, that the writer wasn't certain which it was. Mr. Wheat is doing splendidly in the "Lone Star" State and is greatly enjoying his visit to the scenes of his childhood.

Among the guests at Olympian are Mr. J. F. Bates, of Monticello. Mr. Bates was lucky in holding some splendid oil land. He sold it for a fancy price but retained a royalty which is bringing him in a snug amount of cash. He is troubled with rheumatism and is being greatly benefited. Thomas Eads, of Stanford, is also taking the baths and finding a panacea in them. Mrs. Robert Robinson, of Somerset, and two bright children are at Olympian for several weeks. A picnic crowd composed of Mr. J. P. Riffe and wife, Mr. McKee Riffe and wife, Mr. Al Schwartz and wife and Miss Mollie Horton, Mr. E. S. Powell and wife and Messrs. T. L. Carpenter and Crit Riffe spent Tuesday very enjoyably at the Springs. Mr. B. N. Avritt and wife, of Bradfordsville, are residing at Hustonville and drive down daily to get the benefit of the water. Capt. B. F. Powell and Mr. W. P. Givens, of Lincoln, were down Tuesday. The captain will return for a sojourn next week. He is troubled with rheumatism. E. C. W.

POLITICAL.

Former Lieut. Gov. William P. Thorne opened the presidential campaign at New Castle with a speech for Bryan and Kern.

Gen. T. Coleman DuPont, of Delaware, has been appointed director of the Speakers' Bureau of the Republican National Committee.

Candidate Taft's friends are busy denying that he said a dollar a day is enough for any working man. This is pretty early in the action to begin the denial business, which promises to develop into an industry before the campaign is far spent.

Hon. James N. Kehoe, of Maysville, was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Ninth district in a convention which met at Cliffside, near Ashland. His only opponent, the Hon. E. B. Hager, made a motion to make Kehoe's nomination unanimous after the first ballot. The convention was harmonious throughout.

Senator William B. Allison, of Iowa, died of heart failure at Dubuque. Senator Allison had been seriously ill since last Saturday, but the facts of his condition were concealed by his family. Had Senator Allison lived to complete his term in 1909 he would have served longer in the United States Senate than any other member. Gov. A. B. Cummins on learning of the Senator's death decided to cut short his vacation and will return to Iowa to begin a campaign for election as Senator Allison's successor.

This is good news to the friends and admirers of the splendid gentleman: The State Journal is pleased to receive from a close friend of Mr. Arthur Goebel a letter denying the lurid stories of his complete breakdown and his serious condition at Carlsbad, Germany. While not very good, Mr. Goebel's health is no worse than for some time, and is far from alarming. He is simply taking a rest abroad, the first vacation that he has allowed himself in ten years.

Chairman Mack, of New York, says: "The situation as I find it in the State—and, in fact, in all the Eastern States—has been most gratifying. The responsiveness of the democratic leaders in the East to the call of duty denotes a campaign that will be fought vigorously to a successful conclusion. Plans are in contemplation for a forceful campaign throughout the country, but of these I can say nothing at this time. All parts of the country is our battleground and no one section will be neglected. Everything augurs well for the election of W. J. Bryan."

At a meeting participated in by Congressman Ben Johnson, chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee; Henry R. Prewitt, chairman of the Democratic State committee; Senator John A. Donaldson, of the Sixth district, and W. A. Berry, of the First district, held at the Seelbach Hotel, the members of the State Campaign Committee to assist Chairman Johnson were selected as follows: Judge Allie W. Young, Morehead; Judge Lewis McQuown, Frankfort; J. T. Griffith, Warsaw; S. W. Hager, Ashland; P. S. Maxwell, Marion. Chairman Johnson stated that this committee would meet next Tuesday at noon at the Seelbach to elect a secretary. Congressman Ollie James participated in the conference at which the committee was named.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor a kidney as it is, is a waste of time, and of money as well.

For your back aches or is weak, if the urine is acid, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can do and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell.

Mahony conducted the funeral service, after which all that was mortal of this good citizen and christian gentleman was laid to rest in the burying ground there to await the resurrection morn. OLDEST MERCHANT.—Wednesday, Aug 6th, 43 years ago Mr. Moses D. Elmore commenced his career as a merchant in Stanford in the same store-room that he to-day occupies, though for some years he occupied the Rineheart store-room on the corner in the same block. Mr. Elmore has always been his own clerk with the exception of about 15 years. When ever he thought he needed a vacation he always locked up his store and many times he stayed away from his place of business for weeks, but his faithful customers who traded with him, always waited his return. Mr. Elmore is a merchant of the old school, but a more honorable one never lived. He owns more real estate than any man in Stanford; keeps it well improved and never wants for a renter. By economy and honesty he has accumulated more money than he has been years a merchant, and says less about his world's goods. He attends strictly to his own business and a better citizen never lived in our community. Mr. Elmore commenced clerking for M. C. Portman in the hotel business in 1862 at $11 per month and board. We hope that he will for years to come continue to be a merchant and that his fortune may increase, but after living such an active life he might take it easier and let his cares be few to him.

CLAY RUPLEY JR., ASSAULTED.—This is what the Louisville Times has to say about the attempt to rob Clay Rupley, Jr. of this place, Tuesday Morning: A desperate attempt was made to rob H. C. Rupley, Jr., an insurance agent of Stanford, Ky., at the mouth of an alley on the East side of Fifth street, shortly before 1 o'clock this morning. He was assaulted and would have been robbed but for the timely arrival of Patrolmen Mike Cross and James Prile. The police arrested J. W. Keeting and Edward Lambert, both aged 18 years, it is claimed, while they were in the act of rifling Rupley's pockets. A third man in the gang made his escape after a long chase by the police, in which several shots were fired. Rupley had just arrived in Louisville, and was on his way from the Tenth-street station to the Willard Hotel at the time he was attacked. When he reached the mouth of the alley he was struck from the rear and rendered unconscious. Patrolman Cross and Prile, who were standing about 75 feet from the alley, heard the body as it struck the ground, and, turning, saw a man standing over the prostrate form. At a signal from the man, it is said by the police, two men appeared at the mouth of the alley and, picking up Rupley, carried him up the alley. The police remained until the robbers started up the alley, and then creeping along in the shadow followed the men. They were able to grab two of the men before they were discovered. The third fled through the alley, with Patrolman Cross after him, but he made good his escape in the darkness. Rupley was carried to Foster Baird's drug Store, at Fourth avenue and Chestnut street, where medical attention was given him. It was almost an hour before he was revived. It is believed that a pair of brass knucks were used. He sustained a severe scalp wound and his face is badly bruised. Rupley is the son of H. C. Rupley, Sr., a well-known merchant of Stanford.

MR. H. C. Rupley received a message yesterday from his son, stating that he was all right. In the assault upon him he lost John Owsley Reid's gold watch. We are glad to state that nothing of a more serious nature befell Mr. Rupley.

MATRIMONIAL.

James Hopkins, 22, and Miss Rosie Davis, 21, were married Tuesday.

ELKIN.—William W. Elkin, aged about 57 years, died at the home of Mr. T. S. Elkin, at Lancaster, Wednesday morning, of consumption. Mr. Elkin had been ill for some time and his death was expected at any time. He was a brother of Mrs. O. P. Huffman, of this place, and Mr. M. F. Elkin of Lexington. He was buried at Lancaster yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after a short funeral service at the grave by Rev. O. P. Bush. Mr. Elkin was a kind-hearted man. During the Spanish-American War he enlisted under Capt. W. B. Penny and did service for Uncle Sam in Porto Rico.

PRESTON 922.

(Vol. 11.)

Preston is one of the greatest five-gaited show horses that Kentucky has ever produced, winning at all the Kentucky fairs and also at the horse shows at Louisville, St. Louis and Kansas City. He is a brown horse with black points, 15½ hands high, with fine style and very high action. Sired by Washington 54. First dam Bell, by Rhodrick 104. Second dam by Denmark. It is useless to commend him, as the people of this and adjoining counties know his record as a show horse and also for breeding purposes. He will make the season of 1908 at my stable in Crab Orchard at $10 to insure a living colt. Will keep mares on grass at $2 per month, but not responsible for accident or escape of stock. Season due if mare is traded or parted with. J. C. BAILEY, Crab Orchard, Ky.

Why James Lee Got Well.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c. and $1. The Erroneous Remarks. High Bridge Safe.

An interview with Chairman A. T. Siler, State Railroad Commissioner, reports that Gustave Lindenthal, Consulting Engineer of the Pennsylvania Lines, after a thorough examination of High Bridge over the Kentucky River, is in an absolute safe condition. After the examination he discovered that not a loose rivet was found and the bridge is in good condition and perfectly safe. Officials of the Queen & Crescent Route had decided owing to the heavy motive power, which is not now being used North of Danville, to rebuild High Bridge knowing, as stated above, that the present bridge was perfectly safe for the motive power now in use. Malicious rumors were started that the present bridge was unsafe and of course this report was spread broadcast. A new bridge will be constructed with a span 840 feet long and by some 70 feet higher than the present one and will cost in the neighborhood of one million dollars. It is supposed that the fact of constructing a new bridge caused the circulation of the report above referred to.

There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c.

When the INTERIOR JOURNAL, due here on Friday, fails to reach us on Saturday, it is almost "cock sure" to come Monday, and is rarely ever later than Tuesday afternoon. We like the INTERIOR JOURNAL and would like to get fresh but will have to indulge carelessness and incompetent mail clerks.

The trustees election here Saturday was a most quiet affair, but it is said that things were not so quiet as they might have been at Turkey Knob. There is a graded school faction and a anti graded school faction in that district and they were arrayed against each other in the election of trustee. The anti won in the election of C. M. Perkins.

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is simply a make-shift. Get a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weakinside nerves. Strengthens these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

In offering the service of this young stallion to the public I do not hesitate to say he is the best bred saddle stallion that will be offered for service in this county this year, as his breeding will show.
